

Good Corporate Governance and Integrity in EXAT CG Day

Today (22 August 2017) at 8.30am, Chuan Leekpai, a former Prime Minister and Advisory Chair of Democrat Party gave a lecture in a topic “Good Corporate Governance and Integrity” in "EXAT CG Day" EXAT Ethical and Transparent Organization” at Conference Room 2301, 3rd Floor, Building 2, Headquarter Office, The Expressway Authority of Thailand. General Wiwan Suchart, EXAT CEO was a chairman for grand opening.

Mr. Sutthisak Wanthanawinij, Deputy Governor (Law and Land Ownership), acting Governor of The Expressway Authority of Thailand (EXAT) stated that EXAT was well aware the significance of Good Corporate Governance and had promoted and planned the efficient, transparent, and accountable structure and management to facilitate the operation for expressway development in Bangkok Metropolitan Region in order to reduce traffic problem and increase sustainable economic, social, and environment development value. This practice was reliable and trusted by government sector who was the initiator and stakeholder of all organizations.

As above, in 2010, EXAT set Good Corporate Governance policy which adhering to the principles and guidelines for Good Corporate Governance in state enterprise 2009 of State Enterprise Policy Office, Ministry of Finance. This approach resulted in promoting projects and plans for Good Corporate Governance system with consistent and great development. In 2011, in particular, EXAT issued Good Corporate Governance Manual to be the practice guidelines for EXAT officers. Besides, Ethics Manual was issued in order to promote the officers to acknowledge work ethics and apply it to enhance quality of working life and routine life.

This activity was organized according to the Good Corporate Governance plan, fiscal year 2017. The objective were to form the participation of EXAT committee, executives, and employees in Good Corporate Governance activity due to state enterprise quality assessment system which would result in the better performance of EXAT, and to promote the EXAT committee, executives, and employees to understand principles and recognize the importance of Good Corporate Governance of EXAT.

It was truly hoped that "EXAT CG Day" EXAT Ethical and Transparent Organization” would promote the development of Good Corporate Governance to achieve the objective to enhance efficiency and effectiveness in work performance of EXAT to become the excellent organization for management, ethics, transparency, and accountability, and to stimulate the sustainability of EXAT as being the leading reliable state enterprise in transportation.

News: By Division of Public Relations, Office of the Governor

Photos: By Information Division, Office of the Governor